PPPrepare population for quick decent! With slugs of global proportions, it won't be our blood on Satan's claw. I stayed in one place as long as I could...To hail the New Dawn and to be a Satanic human being....And reverse the karma of a
*****

Jesus.

I do declare...It's a fuckin' shame.

In charge of projects, moreover, meant to clean.

Liberation

here, will disappear. Bring them where they cannot flee...

Bestow their final agony!

Hang them on crosses...Divide them by sex and race....Then lop

off their hands in strict accordance with the Devil's demands.

Rocking back and forth...a dirty degenerate dynasty.

Satan!...We're desperately seeking Satan...We're desperately seeking Satan!

The candidate for international conspiracy....Save the planet

from abduction and futility...Preside over supremacy!
