You don't have to hurt me do you I no it's not up to you but If there's anything I can do that's right Give me a little clue

Is it over after all, Is it over after all, Is it over after all it always is

I don't have to hurt much does it
I don't have to dwell upon it I guess it was up to me to be Little bits more than that

Is it over after all, Is it over after all, Is it over after all it
always is Cause I know nobody else and there will be nobody else
I can't have nobody else I want nobody else
I get nobody else I lost nobody else
I can't have nobody else I see nobody else

I'm bending over backwards that's how it seems to be It's no more than a bad move bad for me
If you knew what you wanted you wouldn't want it after all Tomorrow doesn't matter not at all I'm following your lead here and you are leading me astray
I'm never far from where I want to be anyway
It's going something like that but never how I planned
I'm making all these promises as you demand
That's where I am
