Iâ€™m living fear Iâ€™m living nightmares With this in mind Iâ€™ve come to find nothings that frightening
So lighten up until youâ€™re hollow
And float through death with every breath that you can borrow

I got your embrace a hundred days before you came Fell flat on my face a passing phase itâ€™s comforting

A state of grace Iâ€™ll keep it in mind
If it comes to pass with passing time Iâ€™ll keep it in mind
So lighten up and tread like angels
A footstep trace was left in place to lead the faithless Come home

I got your embrace a hundred days before you came
Fell flat on my face a passing phase itâ€™s comforting

Youâ€™re wired tonight Youâ€™re wired alright

Lord I have these blistered feet from chasing you here and there
From chasing you everywhere
Lord where ever we next meet Iâ€™ll find you eventually could be inside of me

I got your embrace a hundred days before you came
Fell flat on my face a passing phase itâ€™s comforting

Youâ€™re wired to me care to feel it this is what youâ€™ve got Youâ€™re wired to me start to feel it thereâ€™s nothing I am not
