You are the one the one and only
You are the only one I need
You are the one that makes me happy
You are the only one I need

When the night falls and heaven comes to earth
Then all my worries suddenly return

I should have made it clear
There's no one else for me
You won't be alone when I get to you
I shouldn't walk away when there's so much to say
Oh baby understand my one and only

When I'm alone it's you who comes to mind
When everything falls apart
You're always right behind

My one and only
There's no one else for me
Yes you are the one...

One... you are the one...
You are the one the one and only
One... yes you are the one
You are the only one I need
One... you are the one...
You are the one that makes me happy...
