I threw a rock in the lake and it sank to the bottom
The waves spread out but the rock got forgotten

The ripples came back as we all feared
Looking for the rock but the hole disappeared

It's somewhere in the middle, some way down
The last guy that went looking almost certainly drowned

He ran out of time
He can kiss tomorrow goodbye

Yes, I piss in the water and burn down the trees
Watch as the creatures fall to their knees

They ain't got a clue as disaster looms
Too busy choking on toxic fumes

They got no hope and there's no point running
No matter what they do, I keep on coming, yes I do

They ran out of time
They can kiss tomorrow goodbye

Put it out of your mind
Kiss tomorrow goodbye

I did a bad thing, I did a bad thing
I did a bad thing, did a bad bad thing

Did a bad thing, I did a bad thing
I was so bad, oh so bad

Well, hallelujah and holy mackerel
All we got left is a thief and a jackal

The writing is big and it's there on the wall
How the mighty empires fall

There's nothing to fix, it's much too late
Sit down and prepare to meet your fate

You have run out of time
You can kiss tomorrow goodbye

Put it out of your mind
Kiss tomorrow goodbye
