

Deep Purple "Shadows"

Visit "Shadows" on MotoLyrics.com

Walk through the night looking for your kind of smile
?Hoping to meet you I walk my love for miles Your face, your eyes, I can't find the girl I look for refrain:

Shadows can conceal you you can't hide, so please don't try Your life and my love
But to search just makes me cry

Life was so young and another day is gone Love seems a lost word
How can my heart be strong
?When that was is again I wait for love to be there

refrain

Then in the shadows I see the face I look for But then like the night you're gone just as before A face in a crowd
A shadow once more

solo
