Alright

Well, I'm standing here on a moving station
All the world is traveling by
To strange outlandish destinations
How did they go, I wonder why

I may be crazy but I'm not stupid
I get along 'cause I use my silver tongue

You know, I can dream in any language
Flying in my magic bed
And I don't need to work my passage
All I do is using my head

I may be crazy but I'm not stupid
Sometimes I ramble and then I'm lucid
Well ooh, I might seem lazy but I'm hurting no one
I get along 'cause I use my silver tongue

But I know exactly what you're thinking
But you don't know what's in my mind
It got to, went too fast, now you're sinking
'Cause you forgot to read the signs

I may be crazy but I'm not stupid
Sometimes I ramble and then I'm lucid
But I might seem lazy but I'm hurting no one
I get along 'cause I use my silver tongue

Oh yeah
Oh yeah

I can dream in any language
I know exactly what you're thinking
Flying in my magic bed
All the world is traveling by
Went too fast and now you're sinking
