

Deep Trip "My Son"

Visit "My Son" on MotoLyrics.com

A broken heart, crashed dreams
A lonely man, is what I see
Disappointed from life, slave of his own addiction
With a bottle in his hand, alkin' walking to dead end

Call me back to live,
Can't you see I need help
I can not stand on my feet
I'm falling to deep
Give me your hand my son
Don't leave me alone
Give me your hand my son
Loosing your hope in these days of sorrow
Your strenght of life is gone, you're singing your sad
Songs
And hope that someone hears you cry, that someone sees

You die
Because of the pain inside yourself

Call me back to live,
Can't you see I need help
I can not stand on my feet
I'm falling to deep
Give me your hand my son
Don't leave me alone
Give me your hand my son
'Cause I'm father6x

Call me back to live,
Can't you see I need help
I can not stand on my feet
I'm falling to deep
Give me your hand my son
Don't leave me alone
Give me your hand my son
My son
