The wait is done, the battle's won
So count the cost before you run
'Cos on and on your time is power
The clock on the wall ticks away the hours
Come on down, you're flyin' high
You'll never win if you never try
Stop the hate and carry the load
Come on, get this show on the road

On through the night, you can't stop me now
On through the night, you won't stop me anyhow

The stakes are high and gettin' higher
I'm flat on my face and you can call me liar
I'm watching you, you're watching me
You're watching every move that I can see
My reputation's still at stake
I play it safe for safety's sake
Your ego and your promises are gonna fade again and again

On through the night, you can't stop me now
On through the night, you won't stop me anyhow, not anyhow

All you want to hear is the audience applause
You can't get on stage for a contract clause
And the road ahead seems a little rough
If you want to know my feelings I'd say that's rough
And that's tough

Your wheels ain't turnin', you're out of gas
You pay by check but they take cash
Two roads ahead but which to take
If you can't see it's your mistake
They're waitin' for you, they're waitin' for me
In what seems like eternity
It's all tradition, it's all you get
In rock 'n' roll there's no safety net

On through the night, you can't stop me now

On through the night, you won't stop me anyhow
On through the night, goin' on and on, on and on
On through the night, you won't stop me anyhow
No no not anyhow
