She's a gold-plated lover, twenty-four carat cool
She can walk on water, yeah, she can walk in my room
She's a one man woman, and it's a one man race
She got a kiss like fire, she burn the lips right off my face

It's finders keepers, losers gonna weep
She's personal property
Sealed 'n' stamped, money in the bank
She's private, for my eyes only

She's personal property, personal property
Personal service, personal touch
Exclusively mine, thank you so much
She's a heart-stoppin', brain thuddin'
Blood pumpin', knee tremblin'
Spine crushin', tongue tyin'
Personal property
Yeah, and she belongs to me

She won't fall for nothin', she's much more than cute
Don't mind your window shoppin', that's all right
But you ain't gonna taste my forbidden fruit

Adios, au revoir, wiedersehen, goodbye
She's personal property
Off limits, out of bounds, under lock and key
Confidential, for my eyes only

She's personal property, personal property
Personal service, personal touch
Exclusively mine, thank you so much
She's a heart-stoppin', brain thuddin'
Blood pumpin', knee tremblin'
Spine crushin', tongue tyin'
And she's mine

Now I don't mind you guys checkin' her out
You can whistle like a wolf or you can mess around
But let me tellyou the secret of the sweet life
If you wanna stay healthy man, take my advice!

You better hit the road, jack, and don't come back!

You could be the king of the jungle, or you could swing in the rain

But she don't need no monkey, not my babe
'Cos I'm her tarzan and she's my jane

She's personal property, personal property
Personal service, personal touch
Exclusively mine
Personal property - she's off limits
Personal property - out of bounds
Personal property - under lock and key
Personal property - yeah

She's a heart-stoppin', brain thuddin'
Blood pumpin', knee tremblin'
Spine crushin', tongue tyin'
And she's mine
Yeah, she belongs to me
