Could you ever steal a prayer to deny your god
Could you ever buy your love and not count the cost
Could you ever take a life when all was lost
Would it ever be enough?

Could you bite the hand that feeds and then ask for more Could you kiss the wound that bleeds, spit it on the floor
Could you open up your heart and then close the door
Would it ever be enough?

Every word you whisper, all the tears you hide
You die for love when it's alive
But where does love go when it dies

If you came across your dream, would you walk on by Hold a candle to the wind and just let it die
And is there room inside your mind for one more try
Would it ever be enough?

I watch the time go rushing by, it's like an ocean wave
Showing you no mercy, throwing dirt upon your grave You're drowning in the darkness and you're blinded by the light
And there ain't no prayer that's gonna save you now

If you woke up from your sleep, blood on your hands
Would you wash away the pain no one understands
There must be someone who can help you breathe again
Would it ever be enough?

Every word you whisper, all the tears you hide
You die for love when it's alive
Where does love go when it dies
