I don't care too much for backstabbin' and sidesteppin'
You're all sweet talk, you're all lust
You're the kind, yeah, I don't trust
I gotta get out, step aside
Before you damage my pride
Let me through, don't spoil my view
I gotta get away, away from you

Oh no no never thought I'd feel so low
You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
But I ain't gonna hide
And yesterday everything seemed okay
Yeah you better run and hide away
Oh you better hide

Yeah I'm out on the street
But I'm back on my feet
I'm not a loser, so get wise
Stop your using, and your lies
Oh my friend don't stick around
Your time is up, your chips are down
Let me through, don't spoil my view
I gotta get away, away from you

Oh no no never thought I'd feel so low
You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
But I ain't gonna hide
And yesterday everything seemed okay
Yeah you better run and hide away
Oh you better hide

You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
You got me runnin', runnin', runnin'!

Runnin' away!

Watch me run
Runnin', runnin', runnin'!

Oh no no never thought I'd feel so low
You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
But I ain't gonna hide
And yesterday everything seemed okay
Yeah you better run and hide away
Oh you better hide

You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
You got me runnin', you got me runnin'
You got me runnin', you got me runnin'

I'm gettiing' out
You can't say no no more
Get out the door
You got me runnin'!
