You're a voice
on the street You're the faces that I meet
All day my life
is keeping time
time with your heartbeat
time with your heartbeat
every day.

It's no use to run and hide You'll be running running running
By my side
All day my life
Is keeping time
Time with your heartbeat
Time with your heartbeat every day.

Like children we have laughed and played the game you and me But have you seen me cry?
Once I believe I saw you dying yet you still remain
To me the same mystery
Only closer Much closer
To my heart
And so you see
I couldn't let you Leave me be
All day my life
is keeping time
Time with your heartbeat
Time with your heartbeat every day

All day my life...ahhh...
is keeping time
time with your heartbeat
time with your heartbeat every day.
