These are the days we throw away
The words we never say
That I'm so fragile and so wrong
And we're still knockin' on the door
Of a world that's gone before
Until the real thing comes along

Kiss the day on it's way
And the sun will never shine
In your eyes like the skies
And the darkness will arise

Kiss the day and await
It holds you in it's arms
And the light will never fade
Kiss the day

And now I've seen enough to know
Though the truth can leave you cold
It can always lead you home
Back to the place where we belong
To the time when we were strong
When we could blow away the storm

Kiss the day on it's way
And the sun will never shine
In your eyes like the skies
And the darkness will arise

Kiss the day and await
It holds you in it's arms
And the light will never fade
Kiss the day, kiss the day

These are the days we throw away
The words we never say
Till the real thing comes along

Kiss the day on it's way
And the sun will never shine
In your eyes like the skies
And the darkness will arise

Kiss the day and await
It holds you in it's arms
And the light will never fade
Kiss the day
