It's the return of beauty & pain
a torture attack
It's the return of sunshine & rain
The angel of darkness is back

Frustration wanted
Sanity is haunted

This is the hosting of peace & of war a false - sounding law
This is the haunting of virgins & whores
I'm in their claws

Gone together with the sun
was it something I have done?

It's the departure of fire & ice

a fatal retreat
It's the departure of truth & of lies my welcome I regret

Frustration wanted
Sanity is haunted

It was the return of beauty & pain
a torture attack
It was the return of sunshine & rain
The angel of darkness was back

Gone together with the sun
was it something I have done?
Ask myself if this is good
If I only understood...
