Regret is what man is made of Regret for things done wrong and for things not done at all

But does it make sense - to build defence between ones guilt and ones need - to make ammends

The grass is always greener on the other side

So why is this true - why always view things from a false perspective - dreams of what others do

How come the upper crust
do dream of immortality
If in fortune trust then dead regardless
Pick your poison

What is man hoping for Why always much wants more Dead regardless
Pick your poison

Absence makes the heart grow founder Absence when asunder
This is a wicked wonder

But does it make sense - to build defence

between ones guilt and ones need - to make ammends

do dream of immortality
If in fortune trust then
dead regardless
Pick your poison

Dead regardless
Pick your poison

Is there a point in trying when our mentality is hopelessly undermined

What is there left but dying
Sensing fatality
of the entire mankind

Regret is what man is made of
and for things not done at all

things from a false perspective - dreams of what
others do

Sensing fatality
of the entire mankind
