I'm putting you on the map, right?
Yeah, yeah it's official, Pastor D, Lady Life
We back at the crossroads, what you gon' do?
Which path are you gon' choose? Alright, let's go

Where did you lose your faith?
And why did you walk away, gained the world?
Now was it worth your soul?
Now you're standing at the crossroads

Be the things you gave the world
All the Benjamin's and girls
Thought you had everything in your hands
But what about the Master's plan?

For the fortune and fame
You gave up your faith
Was it worth the sacrifice
For you to lose your life?

Take my hand let me lead the way
Let me lead you to a brighter day
I know you think nobody knows
But you're standing at the crossroads

And, and where did you lose your faith
And why did you walk away, gained the world?
Was it worth your soul?
Now you're standing at the crossroads

Walking 'round empty inside
From the pain you try to hide
Deep down it's misery
And you think that He can't see

But God understands
Won't you take my hand?
You don't have to hurt no more
God is knocking at your door

Take my hand let me lead the way
Let me lead you to a brighter day

I know you think nobody knows
But you're standing at the crossroads

Yeah, okay, now at some point
We all come to these crossroads

I'm at these crossroads, man, trying to make a decision
Contemplating my roads taking the way that I'm living Steadily repenting cause I'm really just trying to stay saved
Change my ways, haters wanna send me straight to the grave

But I ain't having it, I done made up my mind
I'm heading for the straight and narrow steady ready to grind
Ready to shine 'cause the life is back again
Ain't gonna be no sucker for sin when you're down with Him

Lost your faith and you walked away
Was it worth your soul?
Now you're standing at the crossroads

Lost your faith and you walked away
Was it worth your soul?
Now you're standing at the crossroads
