

Deja Voodoo "More Beers"

Are you liking what you hear?
No, well don't stand there and stare
Who cares if you clap your hands?
Or even that you're here?
Stop! Hold your applause, cross those names off the doors
Save your loving for another band, this round is yours
Something's wrong, life can't go on Now's the time to stand up and show that you care
For one dollar a day you can make a child's day
But some skinny kid in Tanzania ain't as thirsty as me
Feeling the fear whoa oh oh getting lonely up here
whoa oh oh
Now's the time to stand up and shout me a beer
Buy me a beer buy me a beer buy me a beer
