Never have I thought that something so small
Would become so great

You can make me cry
You can make me smile
You can tell a lie
You can make my world
You can drive me wild
You can give enjoy
You can hurt my soul
You can make my world

I can make you cry
I can make you smile
I can tell a lie
I can make your world
I can drive you wild
I can give enjoy
I can hurt your soul
I can make your world

Never have I thought that something so small
Would become so great
Never have I thought that something so small
Would become so great

You can make me cry
You can make me smile
You can tell a lie

You can make my world
You can drive me wild
You can give enjoy
You can hurt my soul
You can make my world

I can make you cry
I can make you smile
I can tell a lie
I can make your world
I can drive you wild
I can give enjoy

I can hurt your soul
I can make your world

Never have I thought that something so small
Would become so great
Never have I thought that something so small
Would become so great

You can make me cry
You can make me cry
I can tell a lie
You can make me smile
You can drive me wild
You can drive me wild
I can hurt your soul
Really I can make your world
