BIRDS EYE VIEW

(Don Wayne)

Â« Â© '65 Tree Publishing, BMI Â»

Doodle doodle do do a do do do do do
Well I love plunging neck lines rising hem lines
Beauties in bikini's bathing in the sun
I'm looking at life from a bird's eye view
Singing like crazy doodle do do do
I'm a big wild goose singing high and loose
Seeing everything that I can see
I'm a tough tomcat no matter where I'm at There's a few kittens looking for me
From east to west and I'm a doing my best
To take in all the sights
And I'm telling you from a birds eye view
Everything is a looking just right
Well I love plunging neck lines rising hem lines...
I got eyes like a hawk and a lot of sweet talk
And I've loved every girl that I've met
But a cat's gotta prowl and a wolfs gotta howl
So I'm gonna love a lot more yet
I'm as free as an eagle and a lot of square people
May criticise my attitude
But they'd enjoy life better if they'd tried growing feathers
And looking from a birds eye view
Well I love plunging neck lines rising hem lines...
Doodle doodle do do a do do do do do
Doodle doodle do do a do do do do do
