I was a fool, broke every rule, blue darlin'
Saw the tears take the place of your sweet smile
I played it smart, I broke your heart, blue darlin'
And lost the only love in life worthwhile

So please, please forgive me
I'm sorry for the wrong that I've done
My heart would cry if ever I should lose you
Blue darlin', you're the only, only one

I'm askin' you what can I do, blue darlin'
To let you know I love you so and did you know
I'd walk through fire, you I desire, blue darlin'
My bleeding heart is torn apart, I feel so low

So please, please forgive me
I'm sorry for the wrong that I've done
My heart would cry if ever I should lose you
Blue darlin', you're the only, only one

So please, please forgive me
I'm sorry for the wrong that I've done
My heart would cry if ever I should lose you
Blue darlin', you're the only, only one

Blue darlin', you're the only, only one
