Surely you know by now my heart is wild
I don't wanna be tied down cause it ain't my style Don't you think I know better world is kind of other too dis-selfish
Well I can't help it I'm destiny's child

I couldn't began to tell you if I try Admit so much to love you for a little while Tried to remember all of the good love I wish you understood love
I ain't no good love I'm destiny's child destiny's child destiny's child
[guitar]
I gotta be on my way now please don't cry
I gotta be somewhere else I don't know why I keep thinkin' of all I'm losin' I know your lips're soothin'
I gotta be movin' I'm destiny's child

So I must wish you well and say goodbye
I wish you moons and stars and sunny skies You gave me so much to believe in my life has a little more meanin'
But still I'm leavin' I'm destiny's child destiny's child
destiny's child
