I saw her at her table
I was able to look her in the eye
She is dynamite
But I refuse to light the fuse I walk on by Stronger I no longer call her name I'm over her somehow She's the flame I use to fly into But she can't burn me now

Chorus:

She can't burn me now, I'm fireproof
She can't burn me now, I know
She can't burn me now, she can't touch me
She can't burn me now, I know

She's the circumstance that turned romance into a bad soap opera scene
I'm the clown who tried to move uptown, caught up in his own dream
I came down so hard, caught off guard, she hurt me bad I will allow But I'm back on my feet, the cure complete, she can't burn me now

She's an arsonist who hits and runs, she's had her fun she takes her bow
She's the flame I use to fly into, but she can't burn me now
