I was going your way and it was plain to see you were going mine

We were both searching for a way to leave some old memories behind

Somebody broke my heart and I could tell somebody let you down

We were two lonely people two lonely people on the rebound

You cried on my shoulder for a while then we turned it around

I told you about her I told you about him then we found then we found

Just like the sun left yesterday and finally went down
The old love is gone and a new love was born on the

We were brought together each looking for an understanding smile

Someone to just talk to and sit and reminisce for a while

We picked up the places like scattered yesterdays on the ground

Yes we found each other two lonely people on the

You cried on my shoulder...
