Why you keep actin' up
And when the shots fire you're the last to duck
You're only worth half a buck
It could be disastrous(x3) (Chorus)

Allow me to introduce you to the new sensation
Del known world-wide like play station
Encase they alter states when I'm the statesmen
Basement flavor got your heart pacing
Racing adjacent to weed of all types
No criminal is a leaved of all stripes
It's alright; they all fall right to place
Slit the git and ignite the face
Mic's a waste, you a suck L
Trying to blunt Del with blanks
Drop the consumers just to propel the banks
Thanks for the centergy when I'm performing for y'all
Hope you remember me and not a boar brawl
Slow your role before I make your car stall
Its life fucking bareback, better beware of that I embarrass cats with they perishable raps
They not fat they flabby and need skill badly
Understand the gravity of the tragedy
When your majesty leave you with a cavity
In your cranium, heal you like an orange
We pullin trains of thought that come in all forms
Atomic promise sail like a comet
One plus reactive, interactive
Not just meant for wax, it's a live thing
Just survive strive to keep striving
Why you keep actin' up
And when the shots fire you're the last to duck
You're only worth half a buck
It could be disastrous(x3) (Chorus)

I run off these rhymes rapidly
You can't capture me
Actually speed of light is a faculty
Swift, fullbacks can't tackle me
Instead they get whipped like a dacari
Laughing so hard they start cackling

Burn me a sack of weed
Developed a devious plan like Dick Dastardly
Casualties left with there face open
Just a taste of Oakland when the place opens
When Detroit jump in, I'ma come in Dumb and incredible idiotic with hot shit
Like a hot plate, when a rock breaks
Straight off the dome to let you know it's not safe
For sucka MC's you might as well cop weight
You risk your life and get frisked for vice
Homes you missed your flight
My shit is pre-paid,
Leaving no lee-way for my escapade
Gotcha on a choke chain like the dope game
Leave you soaked like rain
From your toes to your brain
I polish it, a taste of chocolate
Black bomber, before tom blast that crack armor
My collision ripping with no assistance
Going on a mission just to end your addition
And spend your commission or Tim's in a glistening
Chains on my wrist and rings
Party people listening it's the thing
Rock hard plus a marvel
Leave you charcoal when you step on our soil
Terrific, get with it
I get lifted in the name of Hieroglyphics
So if y'all are with me
Raise your blunts,
Pull out your spliff flick
Blaze them once
While I, fade the dunts, who get paid to front
Unanimous you know we got major bucks
Why you keep actin' up
And when the shots fire you're the last to duck
You're only worth half a buck
It could be disastrous(x3) (Chorus)
Why you keep actin' upâ€¦HUH
