(Check it out...1st to bat, steppin' up to the plate is...)

I'm the monsta'

Come on in closa'

I'll roast ya'

Not never worried 'bout competition

Listen

I can twist men

Into pretzels

My jet skills, can outrun

'cause it's fun

I'm not done

One or even two could even try

It's not a even try

I'll leave 'em, why

Did you do it, I'ma school kids and tease 'em and please 'em

For the treason

That's the reason

I'ma squeeze 'em

Make 'em tell

And make 'em dwell

They're not dead

I got lead, but I won't use it

I'll refuse it

'cause they're losin'

I'll be merciful

I won't hurt the skull, with the hollow tip

I'll make sure they follow tips, that I tell 'em

I won't spell 'em, out

They'll shout, in horror

'cause they saw a metamorphis

I'ma force kids out the galaxy

So now ask me

Don't try to go around

Because I know the sound

They're not stealthy

I'm dope, the opposers - I make sure you chose the straight and narrow

Prepare though, and be careful

[CHORUS:]

"You had your chance, you blew it X3

You had your chance..."
Now peep this, they forgot
And now they gonna rot
They didn't know that they could sell a lot, (a lot)
Of trash
'cause it doesn't smash or last
They got cash, but now
How are you gonna survive
Because you strive to gamble
You're in shambles, and I'm glad
I could add flavor
I'm the savior, misbehavior can catch hell
None can match Del
Unless they stress, fresh
I'm nonetheless and take a guess
The one that make 'em go back and tell they crew
That Del is true, he tell a new way to say whatever's clever
I'm gonna sever
Necks of those who don't respect the rap legacy
Because I egg MC's,
On the late night
They got away writin' clever raps
'cause with that bullshit it sounds like they never rapped
In they life
I got a knife, that is lyrical
And Del is causin' fear and still has potential (potential)
They didn't learn
Now the money's gonna burn
I yearn to make rap better. . .
Let's stick together!
[CHORUS:]
"You had your chance and you blew it X3
You had your chance, you had your chance, you had your chance, uhh...you
Blew it!"
[Del, tha funkee homosapien, from Hieroglyphics]
