Abigail
"You Set Me Free"

How many times have I called your name
And wondered if you hear me, see me
Know the things I'm feeling in my soul

You turned around and you answered me
You held out your arms to me
Helped me when I needed you the most

And you set me free
Finally I see
You set me free
In you I can believe
You set me free

I was alone when you came to me
Saw that I was naked, broken
Couldn't find the strength to carry on

You lifted me up and you sheltered me
You opened up your heart to me
Loved me when I needed you the most

And you set me free
Finally I see
You set me free
In you I can believe
You set me free

You're everything to me
You set me free
In you I can believe
You set me free
