"One More Lie In"

If you fall asleep I'll love you
Pulling leaves from trees above you
I know all the things that haunt you
And you need to know I want you

Girl there is no easy way
To say the things you need to say but
You have to try today
Because these things won't go away

All I want is one more lie in
These four walls and you not crying
All I want is one more lie in

Cut the phone lines, hold my hand
Cause things don't always go to plan
I'm brave enough for both of us
And ten foot tall when things get tough and

Fuck the neighbours, turn this up
We fought the war and won the cup
And hand in hand we'll run through cities
Smashing statues, climbing trees and ..

All I want is one more lie in
These four walls and you not crying
All I want is one more lie in

I hope we never grow old
Then we can still seek our fortune
I hope we never grow old
Unless you tell me this goes,
We'll jump the harbor,
Riding out past midnight
Candles leading only your way

All I want is one more lie in
These four walls and you not crying
All I want is one more lie in

All I want is one more lie in
These four walls and you not crying
All I want is one more lie in
