You could've called, you could've ran,
You could've made a better plan,
You had the wheels, you found the keys,
You overcome the silent spring,

Another year, another town
Another life to circle round,
A bed of roses left to fade,
And like a rose you ruled this place,

Why wait for flowers in the evening?
Why wait for love to believe in?

Rhapsody, drown my laughter,
Sympathy, serenade the spark in me,
Wrap my heart in rhapsody,

You could've called, you could've ran,
You had the time to make demands,
On lovers here, a lover there,
A call to arms, a lighthouse stare,

Why wait for flowers in the evening?
Why wait for love to believe in?

Rhapsody, drown my laughter,
Sympathy, serenade the spark in me,
Wrap my heart in rhapsody,

Rhapsody came so close now
All at sea, forge a note you
Lost to me, lost my rhythm, rhapsody,

Oh rhapsody, break the code and climb the trees,
Watch the distant days recede,
Wrap my heart in rhapsody,
Oh, rhapsody...
