Well, He knew what He was doin'
When He put eyes into my head
If He didn't want me to lookin' at all them pretty little women
He'd left my old eyeballs dead

Now, isn't that so?
(Isn't that so?)
Tell me, isn't that so?
(Isn't that so?)
You got to go when your heart says go
Isn't that so?
(Isn't that so?)

Well, He knew what He was doin'
When He made that magic vine
His own son got a reputation
For turnin' water into wine

Isn't that so?
(Isn't that so?)
Tell me, isn't that so?
(Isn't that so?)
You got to go when your heart says go
Isn't that so?
(Isn't that so?)

Let the line least resistance lead me on
Let the line least resistance lead me on

(Isn't that so?)
Well, He knew what He was doin'
When He divided the high from the low
You got to bury the seed in the womb, my friend
If you want the little seed to grow

Now, isn't that so
(Isn't that so?)
Isn't that so
(Isn't that so?)
You got to go when your heart says go
Isn't that so?

You got to go when your heart says go
Isn't that so?

Let the line of least resistance lead me on
Let the line of least resistance lead me on

Let your heart, let your heart, let your heart lead you on
Let your heart, let your heart lead you on
(Let your heart lead you on)

Let your heart lead you on
(Let your heart, let your heart lead you on)
Lead you on
(Let your heart lead you on)
Lead you on
(Let your heart, let your heart lead you on)
