Oh, my, Baby don't you cry over me anymore Oh, my, you gonna have to learn to get by I've been down before and I'll probably get down some more
It seems like I've been doin' alright without you.

Listen to me, you gonna have to set me free Woman stop your cryin' and go and and let me be Go out and find yourself someone
'Cause I can't help you none
It seems like you'd be doing much better without me

We cant talk about the things we need to talk about baby, 'cause we don't see nothing the same We tried to compromise and maybe we both tried a little too much to change.
