I turned out all the lights in my old world
There in the dark I left a tremblin' crying darling girl It's plain to see that you got me Doin' what I have to do
to be with you.

I wonder how big a fool a man can be Burnin' bridges, breakin' hearts, and causin' miseries, right or wrong I'll go on doin' what I have to do
to be with you.

It seems you possess me body and soul
You keep my heart to poundin' so my mind can't take control

I can't change the things I fail to see In time I know some things I've done gonna all come down on me I'll get by, though I might cry
Doin' what I have to do
to be with you.
