"Consciousness Of Love"

The consciousness of love doesn't understand
The white lies and the alibis of the wicked men
The purity of trust only seeks to find
A truth within the nothingness

Wants me in the oceans of the lie
Fill my soul eternally
Solace brings the darkness of the night
And dances in the flame

Of the consciousness of love
The consciousness of love

The consciousness of love is the patient calm
That stirs within the eye of the perfect storm
The fate of all the lights on the wings of a butterfly
That nothingness is calling

Take me where the ocean meets the light
Blowing in the ecstasy
Solace brings the darkness of the night
And revels in the flame

Of the consciousness of love
The consciousness of love (X3)

Take me where the ocean meets the light
Blowing in the ecstasy
Solace brings the darkness of the night
And revels in the flame

Of the consciousness of love
The consciousness of love (X7)
