Daylight :

If you can believe you're turning
All the world that broke your mind,
Then I can do something for you
Even though you're lost in time.

You won't have to be my heaven.
I won't have to be your friend.

Daylight comes every time it's calling.
Daylight
Daylight, it goes away again now.

Don't let go.
Don't let go of your heart.
Don't let go.
Don't let go of your heart.

Feel like your skin is burning
Into many drops of rain.

But it's doing nothing to me
Drowning in a sea of pain.

You won't have to be my heaven.
I won't have to be your friend.
Daylight
Daylight comes every time it's calling.
Daylight
Daylight, it goes away again now.

Don't let go.
Don't let go of your heart.
Don't let go.
Don't you know who you are?
Don't let go.
Don't let go of your heart.
Don't let go.
Don't let go of your heart.
