Don't get too close - this shore is cavernous and cold
Too close is cavernous and cold
Cavernous and cold
You're collecting empty shells
Too late to scribe
Alive - in my soul
I'd rather hide - than fight you stealing my soul
A marbled ocean of steaming ghosts

They bare what's tavernous and told
A haunted ocean is cavernous and cold
I am where the fearing dwells
Too late to scribe
Alive - in my soul
I'd rather hide - than fight you stealing my soul
I'd rather hide
