"Lock Down"

I've been waiting for that someone
Who could break my rules
But when that feeling starts erupting
I put my heart on lock down

I've been getting over something
That could paint my view
And I'm really bad at trusting
I hope that you are careful too

Cause you could that be someone
Who could be breaking through
The bars that I held on to
Release my heart from lock down

Release it my heart's been on lock down
Release it my love could be freed now
Release it my heart's been on lock down
Release it my love could be freed now
Release it my heart's been on lock down
Release it my love could be freed right now
If you know how

Don't leave me
No no don't leave me
No no don't leave me alone
My heart's on lock down

When my heart's under protection
It gets locked up tight
And I'm afraid of a disturbance
So don't break in if it's not life

You could be that someone
Who could be breaking through
The bars that I've held on to
Release my heart from lock down

You could be breaking through
The bars that I've held on to
My scars could be healing too
Release my heart from lock down

You could that someone
Who could be breaking through
My heart will be healing too
Release my heart from lock down

Don't leave me
No no don't leave me
No no don't leave me alone
My heart's on lock down
