I really wanted to go it hurt me too much to stay I run away so fast that my heart couldn't find the way then you came along and I was tired of my sadness it seemed as though my life went on but the feeling didn't last holding on to everything that's gone saving my life from going on thinking of what else I could have done it wasn't meant to be

(and then you came along and I was lost and found my life went on but I was lost and found)
I was lost and found

I was back on my feet you could say I was barely walking but the cut was deep and I was holding on to the past

my life went on but I was lost and found)

he had taken my illusions and I needed them so badly I grew tired of my confusion cause he was still there everywhere you came along and I was lost and found (lost and found)

my life went on but I was lost and found you came along and I was stuck in the past there was a new life in sight but I was blind...

my life went on but I was lost and found) there was a new lief in sight
but I was blind
