"Burst"

Stop pretending
I see through your disguise
I saw the tear
And I've seen the scars

Hiding behind a false facade
You put on that twisted smile
Give it up, everyone knows

Despite all you've gone through
And all that's been done to you
Your tale remains untold
Never a word... ever

Silent, you suffer
Your lips stay sealed
While you're screaming within

Suicide - your way out?
There's more to life
Than you know
It offers more than pain!

Burst - leave nothing unsaid
And survive
