Streets like the rest of them but I can't forget
Faces familiar and full of regret
I hated this place
And all who came from it
Far from the scenery far from the road
Far from the greenery lifted my load
We boarded the train to come back again

I was convinced in my mind
I was not of this kind
Faced with the with banality
I choose calamity*

See us
Watch how the city consumes us
Watch how the city destroys us
Prices I'm happy to pay

Walking on pathways I walked with my friends
Year in that some of them have met bitter ends
How can you conceive
Your friends will be grieving for you
Running from memories a lonely tonite
Doesn't make remedies they still survive
I hated this place
And I have conform it

I was convinced in my mind
I was not of this kind
Faced with the with reality
I choose revolity*

See us
Watch how the city consumes us
Watch how the city destroys us
Cost I am happy to pay

See you coming near
See you walking close to me
Fear inside my head
Fear is never far from me
Walk you in the side

Walk you in the day we met
We will disappear
We will reappear
We can disappear
We can reappear

See us
Watch how the city consumes us
Watch how the city destroys us
Prices I'm happy to pay
