Started to fight
But I took off in fright
I could not believe
That she didn't chase me

Climbed on her back
With an ambush attack
Down came the force
And down came the briefcase

Quiet before
Then you came to the fore
Not unsurprised
Still happy to see you

You know there's no chance
Not a sniff of romance
And I'm thinking this is the end of the Line

And you're feeling fine
Are you looking for favours
Returned for your crime
Help me to stand
Help me to say
That I don't want to be here
I don't want to stay
I just want away
A hit for a feel
With uncoquered appeal
You locked the door
And I started to tremble
Touch without touch
Are we feeling too much
I can't decide
If I'm feeling able
Eyes that don't meet
Are we too scared to speak
I can't provide what you are requesting

You know there's no chance

Not a sniff of romance
And I'm thinkig this is the end of the line

And you're feeling fine
While you're looking for favours
Returned for your crime
Help me to stand
Help me to say
That I don't want to be here
I don't want to stay
I just want away

And I, I'll try to feel fine
While I'm taking orders from bottles of

Wine
Help me to stand
Help me to say
That I don't want to be here
I don't want away

Touch without touch
Feel without feel
Are we both really hoping
This just isn't real
Help me to stand
Help me to say
That I don't want to be here
I don't want to stay
I can't give today
