Highway hard run, sure runs, sure hard
Highway hard run, sure runs, sure hard

Just got into Montreal
We're looking for relief, but that ain't all (oh yeah)
The riot squad's on full alert
Esp. for the one that wears a skirt (oh yeah)

Woman I need someone, can't be just anyone
I need someone who knows the way

Walked into this smoke-filled bar
The band's a joke, yeah the singer's gone too far (ooh yeah)
But the waiter said she'd soon be here
Now should I go or have another beer (oh yeah)

Just let me hold you tight, everything feels so nice
Let me just whisper in your ear (kiss my gut)

Highway hard run, sure runs, sure hard
Highway hard run, sure runs, sure hard

Woman I need someone, can't be just anyone
I need someone who knows the way
Just let me hold you tight, everything feels so nice
Let me just whisper in your ear
