Sit around and watch it fall around.
See my hands as my head becomes my knees.
I know I'm right and still I know you're not.
I believe in a lifetimes guarantee.

It's a perfect day watching out in the rain.
The only time I couldn't breathe was when they came home.

Don't stand aside and don't give others gin
But believe in a lifetimes guarantee.
Don't ask question I still can't answer.
Stand aside and let your happy be.
It's a bankrupt way sitting inside when it rains.
I came home and said hello you said I'm still alone.
