Will you join me ?
I want to live these years again.
There is no dignity in losing a friend.

We were younger and thought our time would never end.
And if I try too hard I miss you.
And if I miss too hard I find you.
And we have ten years gone to get through but it all feels over.

Do you have the time ?
Inclination ?
Does it feel too right ?
How can we continue with better things behind you ?
Do we have to fight ?
Complications.
Just to feel alright ?
We spent our years dreaming but our dreams were misleading and now we're through.

Please forgive me, I won't invite you in next time.
But did you change at all when you witnessed the crime

Stand your ground now and make sure it's a happy home.
And while your choice of friend was touching, was it reason for adjusting ?
And when you go to sleep are you wondering if it all makes sense now ?

Do you have the time ?
Inclination ?
Does it feel too right ?
How can we continue with better things behind you ?
Do we have to fight ?
Complications.
Just to feel alright ?
We spent our years dreaming but our dreams were
misleading and now we're through.

Do you have the time ?
Inclination ?
Does it feel too right ?
How can we continue with better things behind you ?
Do we have to fight ?
Complications.
Just to feel alright ?
We spent our years dreaming but our dreams were
misleading and now we're through.

And I hope you've found what you're after.
Leave another town.
Visits in the country were over all too quickly.
And I hope we meet before we're older.
Have a chance to speak.
We spent our years dreaming but our dreams were misleading and now we're through.
