Come, like You promise

This is the sound of the secret place
This is the song that the angels sing
This is the sound of the coming rain

This is the sound of my heart's desire
This is the song that my spirit sings
This is the sound of the coming rain

Come, like You promise
Come, like You

This is the groan from the deepest place
This is the incense that fills the earth
This is the sound of the coming rain

This is the sound of the hope within
This is the song that the prophet sings
This is the sound of the coming rain

Won't You come, like You promise?
Come, like You promise

Won't You come, like You promise?
Come like You promise
Come like You promise, come

These are the words that creation cries
These are the songs of injustice and pain
This is the sound of the coming rain

Won't You come yeah, come, come like You promise?
Won't You come, come like You promise?

Won't You come, come to me
Run to me, like You promise? Yeah
Come, come like You promise
