

Delirious? "Fire"

Visit "Fire" on MotoLyrics.com

Fire burning from the outside to the inside out
There's a feeling leading, pleading, follow where it goes
Excess baggage falling, crawling, throw it all away
My redemption actual, factual, happening today

Holding on to everything we have
Say goodbye to everything we love

I, I, I believe that the fire is here today
I, I, I believe, yeah, now the smoke in my eyes
Has blown away

Digging deeper there's a well, the years have tried to hide
Blood red freedom in my veins, get ready for the ride

Holding on to everything we have
We'll say goodbye to everything we love

I, I, I believe, yeah that the fire is here today
I, I, I believe, now the smoke in my eyes
Has blown away

I, I, I believe that the fire is here today
I, I, I believe, now the smoke in my eyes
Has blown away

(I, I, I believe)
Feel it, feel it coming on
Have some fear 'cos the heat is on Watch coming from the sky
He's riding in on his chariot of fire

(I, I, I believe)
Feel it, feel it, don't give up
We're holding up this burning cup
Hear it, hear it, shake the ground
The freedom people make their sound
