Give what you've got, give it all that you can
With the world at your feet and your life in your hands
You've got to give it, give it, give it what you've got

Over the years I've tried to do what I could
I've made some mistakes but the grace was so good
You know I gave it, I gave it, I gave it all I got

Oh, oh, oh, the years have flown by
This is our time for moving on

We've got to fly, fly
We're gonna spread our wings
And fall into the sky

Give what you've got when your world falls apart
Get back on you're feet, there's a fire in your heart
You've got to live it, live it, give it what you've got

Don't let what you own be a clown when you're old
Don't sell up your soul to the glitter and gold
You've got to give it, give it, give it what you've got

Oh, oh, oh, the years have flown by
This is our time for moving on

We've got to fly, fly
We're gonna spread our wings
And fall into the sky

We're gonna fly, fly
We're gonna give it all we've got
'Cause we've only got one life

Give it, give it, give it, give it, give it, give Give it what you've got

Oh, oh, oh, the years have flown by
This is our time for moving on

We've got to fly, fly
We're gonna spread our wings

And fall into the sky

We're gonna fly, fly

'Cause we've only got one life
