

Delirious? "Stare The Monster Down"

One thing I have pondered is how the mighty fall
I've sung the songs of heaven just to lose it all
See me falling down, see me falling down

Another day in paradise, another day to die
The writing's on the wall again and the future's asking why
Why we turned away, why we turn away

Is there, is there a place
In Your arms of love strong enough?
Will You carry us, carry us through?

Eighteen weeks of chemo, six doses of hell
A family bucket of pills a day to make my father well Stare the monster down, we're gonna stare the monster down

Is there, is there a place
In Your arms of love strong enough?
Will You carry us, carry us through?

One thing I have pondered is how the mighty fall
I sang the songs of heaven just to lose it all
Devil, you're not gonna win

Is there, is there a place
In Your arms of love strong enough?
Will You carry us, carry us through?

Is there, is there a place
In Your arms of love strong enough?
Will You carry us, carry us?
