What Is This Thing Called Loved?

Looking into yesterday and all the dreams that heaven sent.

Maybe love will come our way
And when I stand upon the land I threw the dreams into the sea
Maybe they will rise again

And maybe, maybe love will come our way
And maybe hope will come to us again

What is this thing called love
I know I've found it, it's in your eyes
What is this thing called love
I know I've found it, it's in your eyes

Looking to the 'morrrows dreams
And all the secrets that they hold Patiently waiting for these days
And when I look into the sky I see that hope is coming soon
Praying love will come again

And maybe, maybe love will come our way
And maybe hope will come to us again
