Ay, yo I shatter dreams like Jordan
Assault and batter your team
Your squadron'll be barred from rap
Like Adam & Eve from the garden

I'm carvin' my initials on your forehead
So every night before bed you
See the BP shine off the board head

Reverse that, I curse at the first wack nigga with the worst rap
'Cuz he ain't worth jack
Hit 'em with a thousand pounds of pressure per slap
Make his whole body jerk back, watch the Earth crack Hand him his purse back

I'm the first Latin rapper to baffle your skull Master the flow, niggaz be swearin' I'm blacker than coal
Like Nat King, I be rapping in tongues
Packing the ones, magnums, cannons and gatling guns

It's Big Pun, the one and only son of Tony Montana
You ain't promised manana in the rotten manzana
C'mon pana we be mob rhymers
Feel the marijuana, snake bite, anaconda

A man of honor would wanna match my persona
Sometimes rhymin' I blow my own mind like Nirvana
Comma and go the whole nine like Madonna
Go try to find another rhymer with my kinda gramma

When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination
When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination

I'm pure adrenaline, uncut, straight to your gut, medicine
Raw cure for pain, I coat your brain like polyurethane
Simple and plain, I'll explain it in layman terms

If you came to learn how to make fire, I'm-a make it burn

Higher and hotter than lava this scholar
Is 'bout just as smart as MacGyver
To put honor inside the heart of a lion
Revolved in a life of crime

Fuck it I like the shine, sip in the white and lime
Comes with the pipe design
Plushed out, both pockets about to bust out
If you not in it for the spinach, get the fuck out

Take a hike, we can even battle to make it right Go 'head lace the mic, you finished? Say good night Head to head in the street, I'll leave you dead in your feet
Settlin' beef, I'll even let you rhyme to the Benjamin beat

But it won't matter, you dreams still gon' shatter
It's a long ladder to climb and mine is on the stagger
So get outta town, 'fore I hit you with the loudest sound you ever heard
Desert bird player you outta bounds

When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination
When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination
When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination

You need the Pun to dis you if your whole steez is unofficial
I'll come and get you and let the desert eez tongue kiss you
With one pistol and two clips, I'll make your crew do flips
Like acrobatics, I'm charismatic, my gat is magic

It makes rappers disappear, whisper in your ear
Crystal clear, come here, let me kiss your tears
Everything you fear is here, you ain't got to search further
The first murder's the worst now I thirst further for reverse birth

Every verse hurts, every curse word's already more offending
Than Eddie Murphy's worst

I thirst for blood like a vampire, any man claimin' his game's tighter
Is a God damn liar

I set 'em on fire, retire your train of thought Drain a quart of blood out your brain and leave you insane in the dark
The king of New York, lays his crown in the Boogie
Down
And sprays the town with a Mac hooded down

I'm no joke, I soak your face with a sweeper Dying disgrace, I'll face your death through the speaker

When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination
When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination

When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination
When you awaken, your manhood'll be taken
Fakin' like you Satan when I'm the rhymin' abomination
