Wanting meaning wanting more, than the same things Wanting everything just to start at the ending I've found another face to show Just because what you say is what will go

Chorus

Doubt, in it all for me
I've hit the wall, all that's left for you is doubt better you than me, I've so far to fall
All that's left for you is doubt
In it all for me, I've hit the wall
All that's left for you is doubt
better you than me, I've so far to fall, but I can't change now missing the life gone by that I have lost

Missing the better times that I have lost when you're near me I get tired when you follow When you speak what you say is what will go will go... you say is what will go...

Doubt, in it all for me
better you than me, I've so far to fall
All that's left for you is doubt
In it all for me, I've hit the wall
All that's left for you is doubt
better you than me,
I've so far to fall, but I can't change now
